
THE SHAMEFUL SCUM OF THE SCANDAL OF HADITHA

This thread discusses the Content article: THE SHAMEFUL SCUM OF THE SCANDAL OF HADITHA

The rot has spread to high levels of the military. Political correctness in all its Santanic measures in contaminating high ranking promotions. I have known for some time about the effect on the Army and Air Force, but the Marines! We will collapse sooner than I thought if the military does not cleanse itself of the disease.

If I'm not mistaken, he not only accused them of murder, he read it into the congressional record, where it will sit for all time. He's one of the few that not only deserves to have his grave spit on, but just the reminder makes me want to go shit on it, when he's eventually put into it. And judging by his looks, it won't be too long in the future.

Just yesterday Dr. Savage spread a sad news, that Colonel Jeffery R. Chessani is re-trialed - perhaps under preasure of Rep. Jack Murtha and the likes. Please wrote to each an every "servants of the people" to express your outrage. Below is what I wrote to the "Surrender-in-Chief":

As the Commander-in-Chief please do all you can to stop immediately the re-trial of Colonel Jeffery R. Chessani of the group of US Marines falsely accused in misdoings in Haditha (Iraq). Each and everybody of the group was acquitted, yet the case of Colonel Jeffery R. Chessani was re-filed again yesterday.

It is outrageous injustice to the brave men, who voluntarily put their lives on line for the sake of our country. This trial causes tremendous damage to our military forces and undermines the popular willingness to serve in the military.

Please initiate immediately investigation of Rep. Jack Murtha about his role in re-filing the second trial against Colonel Jeffery R. Chessani. It was Rep. Jack Murtha who rushed to falsely accuse the Marines in this case.

What's even more unbelievable is this whole mission was watched at command in real time. Why was this evidence not EVER presented???? This evidence was never presented in any of the hearings/trials. What a complete crock....angry:

THANK YOU! WE ARE BACK ON THE BALLOT!

Lt. Colonel William Russell is a decorated combat veteran who has served in Desert Storm, the Iraq War, and the Pentagon on 9/11.

He's a Republican, and he came home to run against Jack Murtha in November but they kicked him off the ballot.

For Republicans to have a choice for Congress this November, 1000 write-in votes were needed. OVER 4000
REPUBLICAN VOTERS PUT BILL BACK ON THE BALLOT!
(About 1000 Democrats wrote him in for the Democratic ticket also!)

Help Bill defeat Mr Murtha in November.

Ella, you beat me to it about Lt. Col William Russell !! Every time the RNC asks me for money I try to send a donation to a well deserving CONSERVATIVE (after I spew that I am no longer a Repub--by THEIR standards) ! The LTC fits the bill !! I never feel that I have to send a lot, every little bit counts ! ANYTHING to get Murtha out of there although if PA is anything like MA, Murtha, like Kennedy, will have a lifetime seat...GRRRRRR.

John Murtha has a little history himself. See ABSCAM
<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Abscam>

The rep was never indicted or prosecuted but the stain remains.

Hey Rep, when you throw good moral, God fearing marines in the snakepit, some rattlers may come crawling out after you. Rhetorically speaking, of course, but perhaps you shall not sleep as well, knowing what a disgrace you are.

I'm sure the recent SCOTUS decision was sugar on cereal for you, bad boy.

When the hell are we to get public officials who look out for America's interest, instead of SPECIAL INTEREST?

Sorry Marco, this man's moral compass has been broken for so long that he sleeps just fine at night.

He has made his pact with the Devil and hasn't missed a moment's sleep.

He should be ashamed and humiliated but he is not capable of feeling either.

A POX on HIS HOUSE and the HOUSES of HIS CHILDREN and THEIR CHILDREN! May the name John Murtha only be found on the Register of Hell! Maybe he deserves the Haditha Memorial Tumor? I hope so and hope he gets it or something just as grievous to his body. There are no words in English that properly describe this piece of human excrement from Pennsylvania. He belongs in one of Uday's woodchippers, feet first, stone cold sober. Rant over, for now.

Shit.

If even the USMC, (of ALL organizations), cannot hold it's "Moral Code & Ethos" together....then there is virtually no hope for "The Center" to hold for the rest of the country.

I had proof Haditha was a Hoax in June 2006

Posted by saldanna - 2008/06/21 20:13

I found a news story from ABC News in Australia that was proof the Haditha story was nothing but a hoax. That story is still up to this day and can be read at the link below.

US details Haditha shoot-out

From my June 2006 post on AJ Strata's blog

Haditha Uncovered

Published by AJStrata at 7:47 am under All General Discussions, Iraq

I must say I have always admired reader SBD's talent and diligence in finding news articles that have direct bearing on stories, and finding them first! So it seems with the Haditha charade. SBD posted this comment on June 8th (from this post):

A cameraman working for Reuters in Haditha says bodies had been left lying in the street for hours after the attack.

Reuters cameraman, Reuters Story, and no mention of Massacre. Maybe reuters has blind cameramen?? Do they really expect us to believe that Reuters withheld a story like this for 8 months when they had a cameraman right there during the supposed massacre?

The media really has no shame.

US details Haditha shoot-out

A roadside bomb that killed a US Marine in the restive town of Haditha on Saturday also killed 15 Iraqi civilians and led to intense clashes with insurgents.

The powerful bomb detonated as a US military convoy was passing through the town, which is 220 kilometres north-west of Baghdad.

The US military says immediately after the blast, gunmen opened fire on the convoy.

US and Iraqi soldiers returned fire, killing eight insurgents and wounding another in a firefight.

A cameraman working for Reuters in Haditha says bodies had been left lying in the street for hours after the attack.

He says the town has been virtually shut down for the past two days as US and Iraqi forces try to impose order.

US troops have been trying for months to quell the insurgency in Haditha and other Sunni Arab towns on the Euphrates.

It was suspected several months ago that Jordanian militant Abu Musab al-Zarqawi was hiding out in the area.

The casualties from Saturday's blast raised the death toll from attacks across Iraq over the past three days to at least 166.

Sunni-led insurgents are stepping up their battle against US and Iraqi forces ahead of parliamentary elections in December.

- Reuters

Apparently he also posted the at Free Republic. The critical point is that on the scene reporters for the anti-war, anti-Bush Reuters did not make mention of a massacre or incursion into homes, just a street fight. My hat is off to SBD for helping to expose a possible slanderous lie against our military and troops as they simply acted to protect themselves during an attack.

:P SBD

Any fair minded person would conclude that the U.S. military and the U.S. government can no longer can be trusted to treat service members with integrity, which in turn should call the duty of the good citizens to lay down their lives for the nutless cowards we have in the national crib into question. Sorry, but that's where it sits; my question to the Dems and these progressives: Got Kevlar? The prices on 7.62X39 steelcase are still pretty good, by the way.

FYI, All,

I have friend on the JAG staff for that case who just returned to the States for her retirement from Army service. I and my family went to meet her, and her husband, also a veteran, at her reception and discovered she was involved with the prosecution of those cases. I asked here point blank whether she thought the accused were guilty and she said she did. She added that she thought the coverup was worse even then the actions of the soldiers. I then asked here why the judge decided against the prosecution and she shrugged her shoulders and said something like they, the prosecution, did not quite satisfy the burden of proof. Just thought you might like to hear the opinion of someone intimately involved with the case.

No offense to your friend (because she is probably a good person) but I'm glad she's retiring.

One less lawyer in the armed forces is a good thing. Some I'm sure will disagree.

We need warriors to fight wars, not lawyers.
