Donald Trump! Donald Trump! Donald Trump! Donald Trump! Donald Trump! !

Over and over again, the Polish people chanted the name of the President of the United States as he spoke to them in Krasiński Square, the site of the Warsaw Uprising monument in Warsaw yesterday (7/06).

The President's speech was so magnificent it's being compared by many to Reagan's and Churchill's best.

To take one example, Newt Gingrich declared it a presidential "landmark" similar to Reagan's 1982 speech to the British Parliament which famously predicted the future would "leave Marxism-Leninism on the ash-heap of history."

Trump delivered a full-throated defense of Western Judeo-Christian Civilization without a hint of apology. He praised the Polish people for their incredibly heroic history, especially against the twin evils of Soviets and Nazis – and made it abundantly clear he considered their current struggle against the twin evils of Russian imperialism and EU bureaucratic oppression heroic as well.

The comparison to Soviets/Russians and Nazis/German-led EU was not lost upon the Poles, who chanted USA! USA! USA! in response.

It is little wonder that at the President's meeting in Warsaw's Royal Castle with his counterpart Andrej Duda, he was seated below a portrait of Poland's national hero King Jan Sobieski (1629-1696), the Savior of Western Civilization.

The story is told in The Polish Stake into the Russian Vampire (Sept. 2011) that's a nutshell history of Poland, and tells the story of Sobieski and his Winged Hussars leading the largest cavalry charge in the history of warfare down the slopes of Kahlenberg above Vienna to wipe out the 140,000 Moslem Turks besieging Vienna.

The date was September 12, 1683. The Moslem threat to Europe was over. Sobieski wrote a letter to Pope Innocent XI, paraphrasing Julius Caesar: "Venimus, Vidimus, Deus vincit" – We came, We saw, God conquered.

It is the highest possible compliment the Polish people could pay, looking upon our President as a modern day Sobieski coming to save our civilization.

Here is a sample of quotes for the history books [comments in the brackets]. You can read the entire text here, and I could not encourage you more to watch the entire video below which includes the welcome ceremony and Melania's introduction.

"To the citizens of this great region, America is eager to expand our partnership with you... And we are committed to securing your access to alternate sources of energy, so Poland and its neighbors are never again held hostage to a single supplier of energy [i.e., Russia's monopoly of natural gas to Poland].

Our two countries share a special bond forged by unique histories and national characters. It's a fellowship that exists only among people who have fought and bled and died for freedom.

The signs of this friendship stand in our nation's capital. Just steps from the White House, we've raised statues of men with names like Pułaski and Kościuszko [see The Polish Stake above for who they are]. The same is true in Warsaw, where street signs carry the name of George Washington, and a monument stands to one of the world's greatest heroes, Ronald Reagan.

The story of Poland is the story of a people who have never lost hope, who have never been broken, and who have never, ever forgotten who they are.

AUDIENCE: Donald Trump! Donald Trump! Donald Trump!

In 1920, in the Miracle of Vistula, Poland stopped the Soviet army bent on European conquest. Then, 19 years later in 1939, you were invaded yet again, this time by Nazi Germany from the west and the Soviet Union from the east.

Under a double occupation the Polish people endured evils beyond description: the Katyn forest massacre [committed by the Soviets], the occupations, the Holocaust.

Through four decades of communist rule, Poland and the other captive nations of Europe endured a brutal campaign to demolish freedom, your faith, your laws, your history, your identity -- indeed the very essence of your culture and your humanity. Yet, through it all, you never lost that spirit.

Your oppressors tried to break you, but Poland could not be broken. You stood in solidarity against oppression, against a lawless secret police, against a cruel and wicked system that impoverished your cities and your souls. And you won. Poland prevailed. Poland will always prevail.

AUDIENCE: Donald Trump! Donald Trump! Donald Trump!

While we will always welcome new citizens who share our values and love our people, our borders will always be closed to terrorism and extremism of any kind [meaning closed to Moslem immigrants forced upon Poland by the EU].

AUDIENCE: Donald Trump! Donald Trump! Donald Trump!

We are fighting hard against radical Islamic terrorism, and we will prevail. We cannot accept those who reject our values and who use hatred to justify violence against the innocent.

We urge Russia to cease its destabilizing activities in Ukraine and elsewhere, and its support for hostile regimes -- including Syria and Iran -- and to instead join the community of responsible nations in our fight against common enemies and in defense of civilization itself.

Finally, on both sides of the Atlantic, our citizens are confronted by yet another danger -- one firmly within our control. This danger is invisible to some but familiar to the Poles: the steady creep of government bureaucracy that drains the vitality and wealth of the people. [A clear warning of the threat of the Deep State bureaucracy to the US and the EU bureaucracy to Poland.]

The West became great not because of paperwork and regulations but because people were allowed to chase their dreams and pursue their destinies.

Americans, Poles, and the nations of Europe value individual freedom and sovereignty. We must work together to confront forces, whether they come from inside or out, from the South or the East, that threaten over time to undermine these values and to erase the bonds of culture, faith and tradition that make us who we are.

If left unchecked, these forces will undermine our courage, sap our spirit, and weaken our will to defend ourselves and our societies.

We put faith and family, not government and bureaucracy, at the center of our lives.

Our citizens did not win freedom together, did not survive horrors together, did not face down evil together, only to lose our freedom to a lack of pride and confidence in our values. We did not and we will not. We will never back down.

AUDIENCE: Donald Trump! Donald Trump! Donald Trump!

The fundamental question of our time is whether the West has the will to survive.

Do we have the confidence in our values to defend them at any cost? Do we have enough respect for our citizens to protect our borders? Do we have the desire and the courage to preserve our civilization in the face of those who would subvert and destroy it?

Our own fight for the West does not begin on the battlefield -- it begins with our minds, our wills, and our souls... Our freedom, our civilization, and our survival depend on these bonds of history, culture, and memory.

And today as ever, Poland is in our heart, and its people are in that fight. Just as Poland could not be broken, I declare today for the world to hear that the West will never, ever be broken. Our values will prevail. Our people will thrive. And our civilization will triumph.

AUDIENCE: Donald Trump! Donald Trump! Donald Trump!

Thank you. So, together, let us all fight like the Poles -- for family, for freedom, for country, and for God.

Thank you. God Bless You. God bless the Polish people. God bless our allies. And God bless the United States of America.”

Of course, Trump’s historic Churchillian Address to Poland was despised by all on the Left, American and Euroweenie. The level of hatred the Left has for him exceeds that for any of his predecessors. On Monday (7/03), Jeffrey Folks at AT provided a valuable insight to this: The Most Abused President in History. The key quote:

“The American media, including social media, is overwhelmingly anti-Trump. The heart of the matter is that the left does not wish to make America great again. Leftists wish to see America diminished.

They do not favor "America First," "more and better jobs for American workers," "lower taxes for individuals and businesses," "repealing and replacing Obamacare," "greater national security," "immigration security," and other Trump initiatives.

They favor fewer good jobs, higher taxes, less military spending, open borders, and bowing to the world outside the U.S.

The media are guilt-ridden over our national history, as they see it, of racism and class oppression. They despise the middle class, and they live in a politically correct nightmare of benefiting from any sort of privilege or unfair advantage.

On the contrary, they are intent on conferring unfair advantages to minorities and the socially oppressed, especially when this diminishes the opportunities of the white middle class.

Trump stands in the way of this agenda of relinquishment and repudiation. Once the American people, with Trump's help, turn their back on the politics of white guilt and income inequality, the progressive movement will deflate like a punctured balloon. That's why they are in a panic to stop him."

"The fundamental question of our time is whether the West has the will to survive." To which the Left, whether in the US or EuroweenieLand, answers, "We do not want the West to survive." And our response should be: "Just take out the words 'the West' in your answer, do us and the world a favor, and kill yourselves."

"So, together, let us all fight like the Poles -- for family, for freedom, for country, and for God." Is there anything the Left hates more than family, freedom, country, and God? No. Then no wonder Trump drives the Left stark raving mad. Keep driving, Mr. President, keep driving.

At this moment (7/07), tens of thousands of Euroweenie Commie-Fascist scumbags are violently rioting in Hamburg, Germany – burning cars, destroying property, and attacking police in protest against "war, climate change, and exploitation of the capitalist system that the G20 stands for," as one room-temperature IQ protestor explained.

The Daily Mail has a photo essay on the Warzone of Hamburg today. It's a massive humiliation for the G20 meeting's host, Angela Merkel. I'm sure you feel her pain. Der Spiegel, the #1 German news site doesn't, running A Lose-Lose Summit for Merkel this afternoon (7/07).

Merkel's G-20 is "a show that lacks any real substance...Poland, Trump said (in Warsaw), 'is the heart of Europe.' The hidden message to the G-20 hostess in Hamburg was clear: You Germans aren't." Meanwhile, "the two machos" (Trump and Putin) "seem to be getting along, at least when it comes to snubbing Merkel." Ouch.

John Bolton was on the money when he told Breitbart: "The G-20 is a waste of time that will be forgotten in 24 hours." The sideline meetings between leaders can be helpful though. And Trump-Putin? Bolton has no worries: "The president can handle himself with Vladimir Putin."

Trump's annihilation strategy of CNN that we focused on yesterday (7/06) has gone to whole new levels today. Check out #CNNBlackmail for the latest raft of CNN Meme videos showing Trump wiping out CNN. But the CNN idiots can't seem to learn.

Believe it or not, they sent a reporter to harass the father of the kid who posted the original Trump-CNN spoof video. Watch what happened:

"You just punched me in the face!" says the shocked Fake Newser. "Yeah, and I'm gonna punch you again," Old Dad replies. Now that's how you deal with Fake News!

Old Dad is the HFR Hero of the Week – an inspiration to millions!

In the most Schadenfreudelicious News of the Week, CNN's Prime Time ratings have collapsed. TV Newser reports that while Fox is winning going away, more people watch Friends re-runs and old cartoon movies like 2002 Ice Age on Nick-at-Nite than Fake News CNN:

Here's some frosting on that cake. On Monday (7/03), the folks at PBS NewsHour were having lamentations over their latest poll showing that Americans trust them (the Fake News Media) much less than Trump. This is "a horrible trend" moaned Stuart Rothenberg. Not to us...

Be careful what you're doing when you read this, no sips of adult beverages or you'll lose it. The now-famous CNN Trump slam video was posted on a section of Reddit called r/The Donald. It's the largest Pro-Trump website on the Internet with over 450,000 participants.

Here's one of their latest. The picture was taken today (7/07) at the G-20 in Hamburg. This is what the Redditors think of it:

Reddit caption: Trump: "Get away from me, you soulless little weasel."

Famed TTPer Joe Katzman thinks such "limbic images" say Lefties are "ugly, unhinged losers, inside and out in ways that strike deep and bypass logical evaluation. They are each worth at least 10 policy papers from a think tank, and probably more." Joe's right. Here's an example he gave

Before we close, there was an instructive reminder this week that being an extraordinary world-famous genius in one specific field does not prevent you from being an idiot without common sense otherwise.

On Monday (7/03), came this headline news: Stephen Hawking marks his 75th birthday with a warning that Donald Trump has doomed the planet to 'irreversible' global warming that could see Earth subjected to a 250 degree hell like Venus.

Our planet will get hotter far far greater than it ever has in its 4 billion year history because Donald Trump rejected the total scam of the Paris Climate Accord. Stephen Hawking's brain has turned to mush. Remember this the next time some libtard pulls an ad vericundiam (argument from authority) on you.

Note: a recent analysis (6/27) shows that nearly all evidence for global warming is due to fraudulent "adjustments" to raw data of surface temperatures. And Hawking could read TTP's Solar Warming from 2005 – he might learn something.

On a personal note...

Today is July 7, 2017. It brings back a childhood memory. When I was a young boy 13 years old in 1957, my father gave me a silver-plated ticket to a horse race. The owner of Hollywood Park horse racing track was a friend of his and had given it to him.

It was a ticket for $100 to Win on Horse #7 in the 7th race on July 7, 1977.

It was a promotion, of course, but I so clearly remember my reaction – 1977?? That's 20 years from now. I'll be over 30 years old. I couldn't imagine being that old.

Now in 2017, 1977 was a long, long time ago. 30 years old was a long, long time ago. Time passes with frightening speed. One day your children are just learning to walk. The next day, they are grown and gone.

The lesson is to treasure every day you are granted life. Treasure those you love – right now, for they may be gone tomorrow. You may be gone tomorrow. You are blessed by Providence with the unimaginably fortunate gift of your life. Never let a day pass without expressing gratitude for it.
